The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1867. NO. 38.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the National Intelligencer.

WHO ARE TRAITORS? WHAT IS TREASON?

There are three great members of the Government of the Union—the President, the Congress, and the Supreme Court. To each of these the Constitution assigns certain duties. It fixes, with mathematical certainty, their spheres of action. It makes it lawful for the President to do, for Congress to do, and for the Supreme Court to do; and it follows these grants of power, by express limitations put upon each of these three co-ordinate and co-equal members of the Government. This is all very explicit, but it is not enough. It does not fully exhibit the exact structure of the political system—at least, it fails to point out one of the safeguards which careful reflection and afterthought embodied in that system. The powers delegated to the three great members referred to are clearly defined, and it is then added, by amendment, that "the powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Chief Justice Marshall explains the theory of the system thus:

"The original and supreme will organizes the Government, and assigns to different departments their respective powers.—It may be either stopped here, or establish certain limits not to be transcended by those departments.

"The Government of the United States is of the latter description. The powers of the Legislature are defined and limited; and that those limits may not be mistaken or forgotten, the Constitution is written. To what purposes are powers limited, and to what purpose is that limitation committed to writing, if these limits may at any time be passed by those intended to be restrained? * * * It is a proposition too plain to be contested, that the Constitution controls any legislative act repugnant to it, or the Legislature may alter the Constitution by an ordinary act."

We have now to look into the Constitution to find the authority which it creates, to determine the extent and limitations of the powers conferred upon these great members of the Government.

Again we invoke Chief Justice Marshall, not only because his patriotism is unquestioned and his great abilities admitted, but because his exposition of the matter is alike simple, explicit, and wholly unanswerable. He says:

"It is emphatically the province of the Judicial Department to say what the law is. Those who apply the rule to particular cases must of necessity expound and interpret that rule.

"So, if a law be in opposition to the Constitution, if both the law and the Constitution apply to a particular case, so that the court must either decide that case conformably to the law, disregarding the Constitution, or conformably to the Constitution, disregarding the law, the Court must determine which of these conflicting rules governs the case. This is the very essence of Judicial duty. If, then, the Courts are to regard the Constitution, and the Constitution is superior to any ordinary act of the Legislature, the Constitution, and not such ordinary act, must govern the case to which they both apply. Those, then, who controvert the principle that the Constitution is to be considered in Court as a paramount law, are reduced to the necessity of maintaining that Courts must close their eyes on the Constitution, and see only the law.—This doctrine would SUBVERT the very foundation of all written Constitutions."

We quote from the Constitution:

"The President shall be Commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States."

"Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech or the press."

"The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury."

"No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury."

"In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right of a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed."

In the array of causes which we assigned in 1776 for a separation from Great Britain are these:

"He," the King, "has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary power.

"He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to, the civil power."

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our Constitution.

"For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us.

"For protecting them, by mock trial, from punishment.

"For imposing taxes upon us without our consent.

"For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury."

We have set up against these provisions of the Constitution and these declarations the military reconstruction bills, which embody a complete military despotism in all the States of the South. The system thus ordained by Congress, and put into operation by Executive appointment, is in plain conflict with the Constitution. It directly, in theory and practice, abrogates and annuls every one of the constitutional limitations herein quoted. It sets aside trial by jury; suppresses freedom of speech and the press; it dispenses with grand juries; it subjects the civil to the military authority, and in a special case it overrides the decision and annuls the process of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The President has thought it his duty to confine his action, so far, to the enforcement of the process of the court. The history of the country furnishes no example of moderation at all equal to that which has characterized the Executive in this wonderful history.

The whole reconstruction scheme is equal, in treasonable essence and political crime, to the late rebellion itself. It is in a complete perversion of the legal powers of the legislature, and their employment in a grand revolutionary movement which not only contemplates the overthrow of the constitutional system, but the deposition of the President, the suppression of the Supreme Court, and the transfer of all the active agencies of the Government to the will of Congress.

And what is the theory of this monstrous treason against the Government of the Constitution?

Mr. Stevens tells us it is revolution—revolution by parties acting outside of the Constitution. It is force—it is open-handed force, made insolent by the extent and power of its combinations. If this be true, the question arises to what extent heavy responsibility rests upon the President for not meeting the issue by the exercise of the high powers which are devolved upon him to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution?" We have seen for two long years the coils of treason drawn with bold hands around the vital system of the Government; and as this work of strangling has been openly carried on, the hands of every patriotic political agent of the old system have been tied, and their feet bound by the conspirators.

It is the duty of the Supreme Court, as Judge Marshall says, to say what the law is; it is the duty of the President to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution." The one is the judge of the law and the Constitution in their application to persons; the other is the judge of those public events and combinations which threaten the overthrow of the Constitution and the supremacy of the law.

The time has come when the President should feel the force of this distinction, and, in view of the wide-spread conspiracy which now seeks the utter subversion of our great free system of government—a conspiracy which has already erected a naked military despotism over one-third of the States of the Union; which is marshaling its forces for the deposition of our Chief Magistrate; which openly sustains every act of arbitrary authority of its tools and minions; which proscribes the whites of the entire South, and folds into power the ignorant blacks—we insist, it is the duty of the President to employ all the authority of the Executive Department to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution."

INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are unforfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

THE

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact, whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1867.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A correspondent of the Wilmington Post, (a traveller, we believe,) in alluding to the resources of North Carolina, says:

"There is ample 'room and verge enough,' to make of North Carolina a rich and powerful State."

We acknowledge the disposition shown by the Post, to encourage and promote the material interests of North Carolina. In this it sets a good example to its more sensational and demagogical confreres, whose columns abound in violent and false denunciations of "traitors, rebels," &c., who are truer and far better men than they are themselves, and whose life-long devotion to the interests of the State give them a claim to the confidence, and, at least, the charitable opinions of our people, far higher than their defamers are entitled to.

The Post is a Radical paper, owned by Radicals, and is at least as loyal to party and as strongly committed to Radical interests, (even so far as to endorse the action of the late violent Radical Convention in this City, which refused to disclaim that it was favorable to confiscation or any further injury or disability to the people of the State,) as any other Radical paper among us. And yet it so respects the feelings of the native whites of the State, as to take some interest in the prosperity of the people, and seldom, we believe, employs degrading and harsh epithets in abuse of its opponents. We say it sets a worthy example to its political confreres.

Perhaps such a journal is cool enough, and sincere enough in its friendship to Southern interests, (for we hold that the prosperity of the South will necessarily contribute to the prosperity of the whole nation,) to look the situation fully in the face, and to reason upon the indisputable facts around it, free from all partizan bias. Perhaps it will be willing to reason upon the probable, nay certain, results of Radical rule in the State.

The Post no doubt admits, that the present state of uncertainty and doubt, as to the ultimate designs of the party in power, is an impassable barrier to progress and the recuperation of the State. This is too palpable for any one to deny. The wisest men among us hesitate, as to almost any scheme which does not promise immediate pay, to invest what funds they may have. A few sharp Northerners among us may venture somewhat, but many of them, who have tested the thing, have "pulled up" and turned their eyes Northward. Nor is the state of things attributable to the presence of military rule altogether, but to the enforcement of Radical rule without the consent and approval of the people.

If these things are so in the green tree, how will it be in the dry? Can the Post show how it is within the range of possibility for North Carolina to prosper in her material interests at all, when Radicalism, full blown, is inaugurated, under the lead of such men as ruled the late State Convention, which it has approved? We confess our surprise at the endorsement by the Post, and by Gen. Abbot, of the Convention, after witnessing the scenes and hearing the speeches which transpired. Tennessee is in a far worse condition, for general confidence and good feeling, so essential to the prosperity of a State, than North Carolina. But if the Radical programme, which the Post and Gen. Abbot have endorsed, is to be carried out in this State, the condition of North Carolina would be even more deplorable. In Tennessee, Radical as it is, they obeyed the requirements of the Radicals of Congress, by enfranchising the colored men en masse, while they still hold in political bondage perhaps 80,000 of the best white men in the State, yet they refused to grant the blacks the right to hold office or enter the Legislative halls. They have rallied the entire colored population to their support at the ballot box, yet they will still refuse to confer upon them office, or, if they grant it, it will be under such restrictions as will admit but few of them.

Congress not only confers upon the blacks in this State suffrage, but Gen. Sickles, in the exercise of his plenary powers, admits them to seats in the approaching State Convention. Suppose the blacks should send to the Convention two-fifths of its delegates of their own color, or woolly whites who would attend to their special interests, and the white Radicals, who would look to their own interests as well as theirs, one-fifth and the Conservatives and anti-Brownlow-Holdenites were to send only two-fifths, (and the Post will see we are stating a possible case,) is it not clear, that the Constitution, which such a Convention would form, would go far beyond the positive requisitions of the Reconstruction Acts, and is it not equally clear that the present Congress would accept such a Constitution? That Constitution might disfranchise all or a large number of the Conservatives, and thus throw the entire control of the State in the hands of the blacks and the few ultra white Radicals in the State. What would be the result? Is there a white skin among the Radicals so blind, as to suppose that they could long maintain any ascendancy or foothold, when out numbered two or three to one by the blacks? Is there a Northern white Radical in the State, who supposes that he could long maintain his influence over the blacks under such circumstances? Surely none can be so stupid.

Now suppose this natural result of Radical principles and management should take place—and we can show, to a demonstration, that it is not impossible,—what would be the prospects of North Carolina? Where would immigration come from to supply the lack of labor now so severely felt?—Would it come from the North—from white men (not copperheads) who must remain in the State twelve months before they could vote? Would it come from foreign lands, whose people must remain in the State five years before they could vote? Impossible. Where would capital come from in such a state of things? Who could be induced to invest money in anything, under a government controlled by ignorant and depraved blacks? Who would buy lands, if the people in power were clamorous to have it divided among themselves? We beg the Post and Gen. Abbott, and Col. Heaton, and Gen. Dockery, and Gen. Barringer, of Charlotte, to think of these things, and point out a remedy to be found in Radical principles and practice.

REGISTRATION AND ITS ABUSES.

The telegraph, on yesterday, announced the fact that, at the recent election in Richmond on the question of the city subscription to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, —it being the first occasion upon which the negroes exercised the right of suffrage in Virginia,—the votes of over two hundred of them were excluded, upon the ground that the intelligent suffragans had forgotten the names by which they had registered and given other names on presenting their ballots. Could anything so forcibly depict the degradation of suffrage, or the frauds which have been practised upon, or permitted by, the Registrars? It was stated, at the time registration was completed in Richmond, upon a comparison of the tax books with the result, that twice as many negroes had registered as voters as could be found among the males liable to poll tax, when the various wards of the city were canvassed by the Receivers. The probability is that these two hundred negroes (and many more besides, who had not "forgotten" their assumed names,) had come from a distance to register, in order to subserve the purposes of Humbuttt in Richmond,—having previously registered elsewhere, under the names by which they were known in their appropriate neighborhoods. Having gotten to Richmond, they found it difficult to get away, for the want of means, or because, as is almost universally the case, the towns and cities have such attractions for the idle and the improvident.

This development in Richmond shows how important it is, in order to the prevention of fraud, that all persons should be required to vote at the place where they register, reside and are known. We hope that Gen. Canby, in ordering the election in this State, will have an eye to this necessity.—At the best, under the circumstances, there will be much false-swearing and gross corruption and abuses, but we assume it to be the desire of the military authorities to make the ballot as fair as it can be made, and as honestly expressive as possible of the voice of the enfranchised.

We would be especially glad, we may remark in this connection, in view of the recent tardy instructions of Gen. Sickles, if registration could be extended until the 10th of October; but, we suppose, under the terms of the Supplemental Act, this cannot be effected. As it is, it is to be apprehended that those instructions will fail to reach many of the Registrars before their labors are completed. Indeed, with some of them, the work is already probably ended,—finished, too, before the instructions were received.

If this is so, the Reconstruction Acts have been, in many respects, totally disregarded, and hundreds, possibly thousands, of white men in the State, who are clearly entitled to vote, will be debarred. We have heard of instances in which numbers have been denied registration, simply and solely upon the ground that they sympathized with the "rebellion;" of others, in which Notaries Public have been ruled out; and of numerous others, in which militia officers, who had nothing to do with "Patrol duties," have been excluded. And yet we hear of the "will of the people," of "carrying out, faithfully, the intentions of the Congress," and the like!

As matters stand, this whole business of Registration has been shamefully conducted, with some honorable exceptions. It would be a farce, were it not for the fear that it may end in such grave consequences.

NEGRO AMBITION FOR OFFICE.—The New Orleans Times, referring to the approaching elections in Louisiana, says:

"It is undeniable that a strong feeling of caste—of exclusiveness—is growing up in the breasts of the colored people, and that the tendency to ignore white men as counsellors and leaders—even though they be of the most Radical type politically—is constantly on the increase. Even at this early day, long before an election for new local governments can be held, there is scarcely a State or municipal office that can be named for which a negro candidate has not already been put forward, with strong and active supporters at his back. A colored man now holding office by appointment of Gen. Sheridan, boasted on a thoroughfare, in tones to be heard by passers, that he would be the next Sheriff elected, if it cost him fifty thousand dollars. He is confident of succeeding without any such liberal expenditure; another is quite as confident of being the next Mayor. The member of Congress from the First District is decided upon, and so on to the end of the list."

THE RADICALS TRYING TO SET GRANT TO DEFINE HIS POSITION.—The Radicals have made a united pressure on General Grant for him to give some authoritative exposition of his political views, for use in the coming elections. They claim that his reticence and his stay in the Cabinet put him in an equivocal light before the Radical party. They are not even satisfied with the outgivings of Illinois Washburne, who, in view of his claim that he "made Grant," is liable to exaggerate the latter's political views.—Forney to-day headed the raid, and obtained quite a long interview with General Grant, during which it is supposed that he represented the desperate condition of the Radicals in Pennsylvania. Whether he got any satisfaction or not will doubtless soon appear in "my daily."—Wash. Cor. New York World.

A PREDICTION.—Mr. Haight the newly elected Governor of California, in a speech delivered on the day of election, declared that his election would be a protest against the reconstruction policy of Congress.

"FIFTY CENTS A HEAD."

One of the most intelligent and reliable gentlemen in the State, writing from the County of Halifax, informs us that during the registration in the town of Halifax, a man, claiming to be a guard, was placed at the door, who forbade negroes to enter, unless they paid fifty cents to the Union League! If that was paid, they might register at once; if refused, registration was denied until all the members of the League were served. By this process, it is stated, some five hundred dollars were levied on the negroes.

In justice to the deluded colored people, and in exposure of the infamous manner in which registration is being conducted in many portions of the State, we respectfully call the attention of the District Commander, and of the proper military authorities, generally, to the foregoing statements, which are capable of proof. Under the law, the negroes, of the required age and residence, are entitled to register and vote, without having to pay for the privilege, in order to promote the covert designs of a secret, oath-bound association. This out rage could hardly have been practiced without the connivance of the Registrars, for it was perpetrated virtually in their presence. Those concerned in levying the unlawful contribution upon the credulous blacks deserve to be punished, and, we hope, will be.

By one means or another, the negroes are being made to pay pretty dear for their political whistle. Out of their wages they are called upon and forced to subscribe for the publication of documents, for the expenses of celebrations, meetings and Conventions, for the support of lazy and worthless itinerant "orators," and for a hundred other objects. And all for the privilege of "voting" for men who are deceiving them with false promises, who are seeking, but too successfully, to array them against their best friends, and who are using them for their own selfish purposes! They are called on to pay for putting designing white men in the offices which have salaries attached. Possibly, as an equivalent, the negro may, now and then, be allowed to be a town Commissioner, or something of that sort, where there are no perquisites, but only a little gratification of vanity, involved. And poor, blind creatures, they think, yet awhile, that it is all right, and "shell out" their hard earned coppers, whenever the hat is handed around!

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED.

Men who talk or write a great deal must sometimes speak the truth, even though they may tax their imagination for much they do say. The New York Herald is a good illustration of this assertion. In the diarrhea of words which it utters every week, among its ad captandum assumptions, there is now and then a vein of soberness and truth, which the public is bound to believe. In its issue of the 16th., after a somewhat lengthy review of the professions of the Republican party, in which it particularizes those issues which gained that party its success, it closes with the following striking views:

"These were the issues upon which the republican party carried the elections all over the North, in 1865; first, as the advocates of a speedy removal of military rule from the South and the restoration of the Southern States to their civil rights; and next, on a proposed plan of reconstruction admitting the Southern States as soon as they adopted a constitutional amendment which left to them the right denied by every other State to make their own laws regarding suffrage, but providing that wherever the colored population should be disfranchised they should not be enumerated as a basis of representation. If the republicans had declared in either of those years that they were in favor of placing a permanent military government over the South, and of preventing the re admission of any unreconstructed State to its position in the Union unless it should return with a registered majority of negro voters, the popular verdict would have been as emphatic against them as it was in their favor.

Subsequent events have proved that in both these elections the people were defrauded out of their votes under false pretences. The revolutionary Congress has paid no heed to the constitutional amendment, so universally endorsed by the people of the North; but, on the plea of confining the right of suffrage to the "loyal men" of the South, have put that section of the country under the rule of five military kings, ignored the executive branch of the government, and laid the foundation for negro supremacy in all the unreconstructed States. At the same time it is well known that the blacks of the South were just as much rebels as the whites. The whites fought for four years, but they could not have done so without the aid and assistance of the three or four million negroes who took care of their families, worked in the fields and raised provisions during their absence at the war, or followed the army, digging trenches, building earth works, acting as scouts and spies, and doing a great share of the hardest work of active service. As the war progressed and drew near its termination, the whites got tired of fighting, and, according to Jeff Davis, two-thirds of them deserted and returned to their homes. The blacks remained true when the whites thus fell from their allegiance, and were, therefore, the worst rebels of the confederacy; yet, by a miserable and contemptible trick, the revolutionists of Congress seek to enfranchise all the black rebels of the South and to disfranchise only the white rebels, in order that they may secure a negro voting majority in the Southern States.

As we have said, the people are just beginning to understand the real objects of the republican leaders and are preparing to sweep them from power. The overthrow in California, and the result, nearly as disastrous, in Maine, are only the foreshadowings of what will follow in New York, Pennsylvania and other States. It is folly to talk of these popular revulsions as democratic victories. These uprisings of the people are independent of all parties, and they are designed to rebuke a set of revolutionary leaders who have deceived the country, to denounce the distinction that has been made between black rebels and white rebels, and to defeat the conspiracy which seeks to rule the nation by the corrupt aid of the national banks and the united votes of Puritans and negroes."

There are no letters "held for postage" at the Providence, R. I., office. A wealthy gentleman visits the office every week and furnishes stamps for all letters that require it. What motive prompts him to this action is unknown, but it is said that some years ago he suffered loss to a large amount through the failure of a letter to reach its destination.

For the Sentinel.

THAT CONVENTION—ITS ORATORS.

The Abbott family seems to have been well represented in this multifarious Convention. The original ancestor of the family must have had a very numerous wife and children. There were no less than three of the name in Tucker Hall, and all honorable men—at least, they were all duly honored. There was Gen. Jos. C. Abbott, the one recommended by the "Committee on permanent organization" as President. Then there was Gen. John C. Abbott, who received "three hearty cheers," as proposed by Col. Peck, (there was a Gen. Peck, too,) and thirdly, and lastly, there was the "Hon. J. C. Abbott," who walked up and took the seat, any how—having been conducted thereto by the Hon. Mr. Pool and a colored brother. The full baptismal name of the actual President is, we think, Jonathan Calvin. The prefix was probably assumed for the nonce. The Chronicle, from which we quote, is painfully defective on this subject. And history may yet lament, grievously, that the actors in this illustrious assembly were so unpardonably careless in making up the record. But the chair was filled by Hon. J. C. Abbott. And he had been nearly as badly bothered by being talked about as his quondam competitor.—Col. Odom had "never heard his name mentioned so unexpectedly." And the Hon. Jonathan Calvin "was very sorry, and not a little embarrassed, to have been made the subject of so much talk." Undoubtedly there was some very interesting blushing, as they looked into each other's faces, and then around them at the assemblage.—Nothing could be more natural or appropriate.

The President's little salutatory was well enough, considering; quite as well as could be expected. He gave thanks, and made a promise or two, and told his constituents that they had a big job before them, no less than "to restore the shattered fabric of that commonwealth," by various means which he specified. But as the word "restore" was afterwards stricken out and tabooed, it would more correctly read "to shatter the fabric of this commonwealth," and history will probably make the correction.—He called upon that Convention "to recollect that their tendency is always upwards and never downwards," referring, evidently, to the old play, "She stoops to conquer."—There was considerable wincing here on the part of several of the white restorers, who had been stooping "upwards" for some time, and were now most egregiously snubbed both by the colored brethren and by the "Northern white man." Gen. Dockery groaned aloud, and Gen. Pool closed his eyes very sorrowfully, and communed within himself. One of the Vice Presidents, overcome with manly grief, spasmodically grasped his spectacles and seemed to be in the act of dashing them on the floor—but Mr. James H. Harris caught his arm and begged him to bear it like a man and a brother. It was altogether a piteous spectacle.

The President, having counselled "harmony, vigor, UNION," "took his seat amid loud and enthusiastic applause." So says the Chronicle. The Vice Presidents, having judiciously commingled themselves in a semi-circle around their Chief—then

"Uprose the sun, and uprose George the Third," in the commanding person of the inevitable Dr. Powell, of Washington City, whom may Heaven bless, and somebody reward with a Senatorship or something else that may keep him at home! The everlasting Doctor proposed the rules of the House of Commons as rules for the Convention. A negro suggested that by them colored people might be excluded from the floor. ("Laughter.")

A delegate (name unpublished) stated that many of the members did not know what these rules were.

The President replied that they knew as much and perhaps more about them than they did about any other—he did not say anything else. That would have been rather personal, perhaps offensive, to some of the brethren, though probably pretty near the truth. The Doctor's motion was carried triumphantly, laughter or no laughter.—And the Convention solemnly determined to be governed by rules which it was admitted that "very few there knew anything about." The President, however, was not quite so ignorant, as, during the session, on one occasion when a colored orator was pretty deep in an indecent anecdote, to make the white brodders laugh a little, and refused to be governed by these or any other rules of order or decency, he was peremptorily ordered, by the chair, to take his seat. The tone of the command being rather of a military sort, seated the impudent and impertinent nigger, and the smutty story has not been finished yet.

Doctor Powell then rose again and moved the appointment of a committee for the more thorough organization of the Republican party in the State, to consist of twenty members, three from each Congressional District. It was done, but by what sort of arithmetic would bother the boys.

Doctor Powell (Lord deliver us!) moved another committee, on Platforms and Resolutions, of sixteen, two from each Congressional District. This, also, was adopted.—The boys can cypher out this—for some of them know that twice eight make up sixteen—but, how to split up twenty by three without creating some fractions of men is a mathematical puzzle worthy of the learned Doctor's acumen. The Mass Meeting at night is next in order. S.

AN ELECTION IN VIRGINIA ORDERED FOR OCTOBER 22.—Official intelligence has been received at army headquarters from Richmond, showing that General Schofield has ordered an election, under the Reconstruction act, for a State Convention, and, naming the 22d of October as the day on which the election is to take place. This is in utter disregard of the President's suggestion to district commanders, that all of the elections in the Southern States be held on one day, the first Tuesday in November. That fact excites some comment, and rumors prevail that Gen. Grant suggested to Gen. Schofield to name his own time. It is known here, in support of this, that Gen. Schofield was ready to issue his election order last week, but delayed it on hearing of the President's views.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

THE REACTION COMMENCED IN THE CITY PRESS.—We understand that the Radical organs in this city have lost one-third of their subscribers within the past three months. This falling off is in consequence of dissatisfaction of prudent business men and intelligent, fair-minded citizens with the violent tirades and bloody revolutionary schemes of the extreme radicals, who are ready to plunge the county into all sorts of dangers and difficulties rather than lose possession of the spoils of the government. It is an indication of the reaction that is going on all over the Union, and that will soon appear in Pennsylvania and New York, just the same as it has been seen already in California and Maine.—N. Y. Herald.

JUST AS PLAIN AS BLACK AND WHITE.—The Presidential platform of Wendell Phillips is Old Thad. Stevens for the head of the ticket and Fred. Douglass for the tail. As Old Thad. is not supposed to be in a condition to pass a sound insurance office examination, an "accident" may make Fred. Douglass President and place the doctrine of negro equality upon a substantial foundation.—N. Y. Herald.

For the Sentinel.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HILLSBORO', N. C., Sept. 18th., 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Leaving Oxford for this place, I passed through the best tobacco section, probably, in the State. According to the amount in cultivation, I think there will be a good crop raised in this section. I passed several fine fields on the South side of Tar River, on the Hillsboro' road.

Tar river, in Granville, is a respectable sized stream, furnishing a motive power for several grist and saw mills, only giving out in seasons of severe drought. There are many points on the river where mills or factories might be erected and the water power utilized. The land is well timbered, only about one-half being cleared, consisting of white oak, hickory and a few short-leaf pines, which grow very large. In some sections there is a good growth of walnut, and on the river, I have seen cedars, two feet in diameter.

The soil is adapted to the raising of almost anything, that can be raised in a temperate climate. The country is more undulating and not so broken as it is near Henderson.

Passing into Orange, I visited the Cotton Factory of the Raleigh Manufacturing Company, and was hospitably received by the Superintendent of the Factory, (Mr. Blount, formerly of Washington, N. C.,) and family, and was shown over the Factory.

The Factory is situated on Little River, about five miles from the Granville line, and two miles from the main road from Oxford to Hillsboro', and about 14 miles from Hillsboro', in a healthy section of the country. The Company own about 600 acres of land around the Factory, and have built a village of comfortable two-story houses for the operatives in the Factory; a dry goods and grocery store is kept by Mr. Blount for the Company, where the operatives purchase their supplies at the current prices.

There are 54 operatives employed in the establishment, including the Superintendent and machinist—the most of them being females and boys.

This Factory is now devoted entirely to the spinning of cotton yarns. During the war there was a considerable quantity of gray cloth manufactured here for the use of the Confederate army, but the weaving machinery has been all transferred to the Company's Factory in Alamance, where they are now manufacturing large quantities of striped cotton goods.

There are 2,200 spindles in operation here, using about 800 lbs. of raw cotton per day, and producing about 570 lbs. of cotton yarn; varying according to the No. The numbers spun here have ranged from 6 to 24, mostly the coarser numbers being made.

There is a steam engine built from 40 to 50 horse power, which can be used in case of failure of the water power or in conjunction with it. The works are now running entirely by water power,—it seldom being necessary to employ steam.

There is a chapel connected with the village, the pulpit of which is filled by preachers of any denomination—a contribution of one dollar each being made by the Factory operatives for the benefit of any Minister who may voluntarily fill it. R. P. H.

COTTON GIN HORSE POWERS.

WE BEG LEAVE TO INVITE THE ATTENTION OF COTTON PLANTERS TO OUR

IMPROVED EIGHT-FEET STATIONARY POWER,

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoon, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 12 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Charles Alston, colored, charged with participating in the robbery of A. Creech's store, was returned to the Superior Court.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS.—Raleigh is fully on its feet again in regard to Hotel accommodations.

The Old "Yarborough," by Blair, whose reputation as a Hotel keeper is almost world-wide, is fully up to the times.

The Exchange Hotel has not fully arisen from its ashes, but its enterprising proprietor, Mr. Cunninggim, has re-built its western wing, now a commodious three-story brick building, well furnished to accommodate thirty or forty persons, and placed it under excellent management, where the guests are well cared for at moderate prices.

Cooke's Hotel is again in the occupancy and management of its old proprietor, George T. Cooke, Esq., whose reputation as a provider is a sufficient guarantee that his guests will be well cared for.

The Planters' Hotel is in the occupancy of the same proprietors, whose patrons continue to appreciate it.

Besides these, we have several private Boarding Houses, well kept; so that the public need have no fears of want of accommodation. We should be glad if the business of the City and the number of visitors kept them all filled to overflowing.

FIRE! FIRE!—Not yet; but we may be startled by one at any time, and where is the community so ill-prepared to contend with it as this?

We suggest to the City authorities to over-haul their finances and their expenses, —to economize, if practicable, in other respects, and to purchase, at once, for the public use, eight or ten of the Portable Fire Extinguishers, of which Mr. Hanes is the Gen'l Agent for the State, and the Messrs. Tucker & Co. the local Agents. Let us have, also, a Steam Fire Engine. The engines we have (not inaptly called "mud-tubs" by our Richmond correspondent) would be about as serviceable at a big fire as a canoe would have been in the deluge.

PROF. ST. MAUR.—We have heretofore announced that this gentleman will give a series of entertainments in Tucker Hall, in this City, commencing on Monday evening next. Mr. St. Maur is from our sister State of Virginia, and comes highly recommended in his profession and as a worthy gentleman. His entertainments are of an elevated order, which please both the eye and the ear, and excite curiosity and wonder.—They have been received with great favor by all classes of the communities which he has visited. We take the following from the Roanoke News:

"PROF. ST. MAUR.—This young Virginia Ventriloquist and Necromancer, whose exhibitions last winter in Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk and elsewhere, drew admiring houses, is, we understand, about to commence a Southern tour, commencing in Raleigh on Monday next. Having witnessed the performances of this young man several times, we can speak of them with truth as being among the best of the kind we ever beheld, while his powers of Ventriloquism are superior to the renowned Wyman; and knowing him personally, we can commend him as a gentleman to the Southern people wherever he goes."

LAW SCHOOL IN MEMPHIS.—We observe that a Law School, on an extensive scale, has been established in Memphis, Tenn., which numbers among its Instructors two of our North Carolina lawyers, who have emigrated to that City since the war. The following is the list of Professors:

Constitutional Law, Gen. Albert Pike; Real Property and Pleading, Hon. R. R. Heath; Personal Property and Pleading, A. M. Lewis; Equity and Commercial Law, Hon. P. T. Scruggs; Crim. Law & Admiralty, Gen. J. H. Chalmers.

This is a fine array of legal talent, and, doubtless, the College will be a success,—a source of usefulness to the Profession, and, we hope, of profit to the gentlemen who have it in charge.

RAILROADS—SOME VERY STEALTHY OPERATIONS SOMEWHERE.

We have just been shown a letter from a prominent official of the North Carolina Railroad Company, which contains the following sentence: "While in Charlotte I called on many of the merchants and gave them the points in regard to shipping via Goldsboro'. I found some of them had ordered their goods via Raleigh, but some had been received and marked that way entirely without their knowledge or consent." (Italics are ours.)

Another—A few days ago a lot of Pork, purchased in Baltimore by the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, came here "stencil marked" via Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and it was done after they left the store of the sellers. These facts need no comment. The public will judge of the morality of such operations.

We submit the first month's figures, showing the receipts by the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company and the North Carolina Railroad Company on freight that passed via Goldsboro' in the month of August, the first after the new route was in operation:

W. and W. R. R. Co. proportions	$4,640 25
N. C. R. R. Co.	2,693 50
Total increase to the State Railroads	$7,733 75

more than would have been received by these roads had the new arrangement not been inaugurated, and at almost no additional cost to these companies. Had the order of the Stockholders been fully carried out, this sum would probably have reached nine thousand dollars. The people of North Carolina will watch these operations with some interest.—Wil. Journal.

We publish the above by special request; otherwise, we should have omitted the first two paragraphs of the article. We cannot be made parties in personal or corporate contests, nor can we endorse the attacks of one upon the other. We believe this is not the better way. It is entirely legitimate for the managers of one of our Railroads to excel another, by superior skill and promptness in management, but any device to defeat the other, by illegitimate agencies, we must condemn. We are, by no means, prepared to believe that the officers of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad would adopt any illegitimate method to secure business for their Road. So far from it, we have found them always honorable in their business transactions.

Our position is well known. We are sincerely anxious to promote the welfare of all the Rail Roads of the State, and we are happy to learn that the business of the North Carolina and Wilmington and Weldon Rail Roads is increasing. What we contend for is this: That the interests of the farmers and merchants of the State are to be looked to and promoted first, above any other corporate or individual interests.—Nor is the State entitled to any more consideration, in the management of Railroads in which she owns stock, than individual stockholders of any Road. The legislature of the State, in granting privileges to any Railroad, does so, not for the purpose of enhancing the State's interest in any Rail Road, but for the benefit that is to accrue to our entire people and the general prosperity of the State. We hold, accordingly, that the State stock in a Rail Road is entitled to no higher privilege or protection to secure its prosperity, than the stock of any individual stockholder. In this respect, the State occupies the same position as any individual. Rail Roads, therefore, in which the State interest predominates, may do everything that is legitimate to promote their own interest, provided that, in doing so, they do not discriminate, in any way, against the interests of the people and the general prosperity of the State.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY for October, with an abounding variety of useful and entertaining matter, has been received. It has a right to claim large recognition from the fair circles, for which it so superbly caters.

RADICAL CONSULTATIONS.—There is quite an influx of Radical politicians at Washington to devise means to secure Pennsylvania and Ohio at the coming elections. "They claim," says the Boston Post correspondent, "that a conservative victory, or even a decided conservative gain in either of these States, would dampen the ardor of their party, add strength to the President, embolden the conservative leaders, and give prestige to the moderate Republicans—such as Fessenden, Sherman, and Bingham. They admit freely that the influence of the approaching election upon the Presidential question must be very great."

Mr. McPherson, the Clerk of the House of Representatives, has made known his opinions on impeachment. He thinks the President will not be impeached, because there is so great a difference of opinion among the Republican members.

A HEARTY WELCOME.—The Cairo Democrat says that seventeen men and boys and two colored "female ladies" turned out to do honor to Sheridan when he passed through that city en route North, after being relieved by the President.

SUFFRAGE IN KANSAS.—Women suffrage meetings are now held in all parts of Kansas. The question is to be submitted, and Governor Crawford, Senators Pomeroy and Ross, Congressman Clark, ex Governor Robinson, and others of note, are said to favor the proposed extension of the franchise.

Short curls, divided into two rows across the front of the head by a thick braid, and longer curls passed high behind, is a method of wearing the hair very much in vogue and generally becoming.

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS
I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.
Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,
LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,
which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.
Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS, new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.
Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.
The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.
Ladies' Pegged Balmorals from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.
Hats, Hats, Hats.
From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.
Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "back again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost," some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in store, and opened for inspection.
COME AND LOOK AT THEM.
I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.
I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say I think they have shown their good judgment.
Don't forget to come to
A. CREECH'S,
Sept. 12—32-tf Fayetteville Street.

MISCELLANEOUS.
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.
This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.
Until the invention of the Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,
Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order
BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER, which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.
The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.
The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.
THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.
It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.
You can effect insurance on your property
At Lower Rates,
if protected by the Extinguisher.
The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.
I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.
No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.
The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

THE SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1867

"CHERISH THY MOTHER."

Cling to thy mother; for she was the first
To know thy being, and to feel thy life;
The hope of thee through many a pang she nurst,
And when 'midst anguish like the parting strife
Her babe was in her arms the agony
Was all forgot, for bliss of loving thee.

Be gentle to thy mother, long she bore
Thine infant fretfulness and silly youth;
Nor rudely scorn the faithful voice that o'er
Thy cradle prayed; and taught thy leaping Truth.
Yes, she is old, yet on thy manly brow
She looks, and claims the as her child e'en now.

Uphold thy mother, close to her warm heart
She carried, fed thee, lulled thee to thy rest;
Then taught thy tottering limbs the nurtured art,
Enabling in the fledging from her nest;
And now her steps are feeble, be her stay
Whose strength was thine, in thy most feeble day.

Cherish thy mother; brief perchance the time
May be, that she will claim the care she gave;
Fast are her hopes of youth, her harvest prime
Of joy on earth, her friends are in the grave;
But for her children she could lay her head,
Gladly to rest, amongst her precious dead.

Be tender to thy mother; word unkind
Or light neglect from thee will give a pang
To that fond bosom, where thou art enshrined,
In love unutterable, more than pang
Of venomed serpent. Wound not her strong trust
As thou would hope for peace when she is in the dust.

O, mother mine, God grant I ne'er forget
What'er be my grief, or what my joy,
The unmeasured, unextinguished debt,
I owe thy love; but find my sweet employ,
Ever through life remaining days, to be
To thee as faithful as thou wert to me.

GALVESTON DURING THE PESTILENCE.

The following paragraph reminds one of De Foe's description of London during the Great Plague. Some one writing from Galveston says:

"The street-scenes at night are suggestive of anything but the prevalence of a most fatal epidemic in our midst. At an early hour the negro harlots appear in great numbers, especially on the most frequented thoroughfares. They are most impudent and disgraceful in piying their avocation, and often the street resounds till a late hour of the night with their drunken revelry.—The white courtesans are equally numerous and impudent, and as they often travel in flocks with their darker sisterhood of sin, the scene presented is a strange one indeed. Then come the midnight brawlers from the late taverns, some reeling along the sidewalks and others in carriages, the dismal rumbling of which must make most discordant music in the ears of the sick and dying. And so the night wanes in debauchery and sin, while on every hand are houses of sorrow and suffering, hearts of sadness and eyes of weeping."

They have away out in Iowa a very learned and worthy "missionary," known as "Father T——," who is more than suspected of being very fond of having his own way. He once attempted to cross a wide, unsettled prairie, and was compelled to "camp out" over night. In the morning he took the wrong course, and travelled twenty miles due North, while he wished to go East. Some one inquired how it happened, as it was a clear day, and asked him if he couldn't see the sun. "Why, yes," replied Father ——, "I saw the sun; but couldn't bring myself to believe that way was East."

What a queer fellow the Frenchman must have been, who for twenty years loved a lady and never missed passing his evenings at her house. She became a widow. "I wish you joy!" cried his friend; "you may now marry the woman you have so long adored." "Alas!" said the poor Frenchman, profoundly dejected; "and if so, where shall I spend my evenings?"

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs,
WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

☞ Charlotte News, Old North State, Statesville American, and Greensboro' Patriot publish one month, and send bills to office at Newbern.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates. It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

Five Steamers each week to and from New York

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth, and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to
JAS. McCARRICK,
Trace Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

TO SHIPPERS.

NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we now solemnly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

R O U T E,

Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!

To Insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely, direct your consignors to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va., or City Point Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

FROM BOSTON:
Merchants' & Miner's Line, end of Central Wharf, H. Sampson, Agent.

FROM NEW YORK:
Old Dominion Steamship Co., Shipping Point, Pier 37, North River, Foot Beach St., Office 187, Greenwich St, Cor. Dey; N. L. McCready, President.

FROM PHILADELPHIA:

DEMONSTRATORS OF ANATOMY.
WM. C. NICHOLS, M. D., C. J. BICKHAM, M. D.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.
W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.
THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.
D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.
J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.
PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit
RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.
Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.
The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.
The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge $25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c. That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

in which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution therein under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the whole number of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
